

Product information — Sagrada Madre

Indian Sandalwood Incense Powder

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Ref.        | 1980A                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Brand:      | Sagrada Madre                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Categories: | Powdered Incense                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Tags:       | Artisan-made & consciously sourced, Herbs, petals & botanicals, Kits & wholesale-friendly packs, Palo santo & aromatic woods, Natural resins & gums, Incense sticks & joss sticks |
| Link        | https://www.sagradamadre.es/en/producto/incienso-en-polvo-sandalo-de-la-india         |

Description

Handmade Use: As an incense or for defumation. Content: 60 grams. Duration: May vary depending on the amount used. Composition: concentrated aromatic oil, essential oils, wood flour, herbs and salt. The sublime aroma of Sandalwood motivates the awakening of consciousness and its mystical fragrance accompanies the journey of being towards enlightenment and self-realization.